Headline:
Cloud generally breaking to allow some overnight frost. Wednesday brighter.

This Evening and Tonight:
Remaining dry and cold. Cloudy start for most areas. Clear spells developing overnight as cloud breaks and clears. This leading to a frost for some areas by the end of the night. Perhaps cloudier towards the coast. Winds light. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Wednesday:
A bright and frosty start. Cloud thickening through the day, with chance of patchy light rain later, this perhaps wintry, mainly over hills. Most parts remaining dry though. Feeling cold. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday and Christmas Eve often cloudy and breezy with some rain. Becoming milder. Probably turning colder and windy on Christmas Day, with some rain and chance of snow.
